

Elizabeth Taylor

Member since 1985 • Richmond District

42

REVIEWS

87

TASKS

About

70-year-old retiree and longtime community member. Avid art history enthusiast who loves sharing knowledge and stories. Grandmother of three wonderful grandchildren. Happy to teach art history, share life experiences, or lend a listening ear to neighbors.

Skills & Interests

art-history teaching storytelling mentoring community

Send Message

Report User

Active Offers

Active Needs

Art History Lessons

Offer

2-3 hours • My home or yours

Share my passion for art history with enthusiastic learners. From Renaissance to Modern art, let's explore together!

art-history teaching education culture

Request Booking

Life Advice & Mentoring

Offer

1-2 hours • Coffee shop or my home

Friendly ear and wise perspective from someone who's been around the block. Happy to share life experiences.

mentoring advice conversation wisdom

Request Booking

Grandparent Stories & Chat

Offer

1-2 hours • Your home or mine

Love talking about my grandchildren and hearing about yours! Great for kids who want to hear stories from another generation.

storytelling children family companionship

Request Booking

★ Reviews

Sarah M.

2 weeks ago

Elizabeth's art history lesson was absolutely wonderful! She brought Renaissance paintings to life with her stories and knowledge. My teenage daughter was captivated. What a treasure to our community!

Michael T.

1 month ago

Elizabeth is such a kind soul! She spent hours sharing stories about her life and gave me wonderful advice about my career change. Her wisdom and warmth are truly special.

Emma L.

2 months ago

My kids loved visiting Elizabeth! She told them fascinating stories about her grandchildren and the neighborhood's history. She's a wonderful grandmotherly figure for our community.

View All Reviews